This Sunday at church be sure to pick up your Lenten Devotional Booklet. This is the fourth year First Covenant has created a booklet with devotions written by people from our own congregation. We are grateful to all who took the time to write devotions for this booklet. Thank you to the Adult Christian Formation Team for spearheading this project. A special thank you to Mary Andrews and Karen Ressegieu who assembled all the booklets. And another thank you to Karen Ressegieu for proofreading each devotion. We hope this booklet will help you prepare for Easter as we move through the Lenten season.

Tired of trying to decide what's for dinner? Take a night off from cooking on Wednesday evenings. Our Wednesday Night Dinners return during Lent beginning March 5th and continue through April 16th. Please bring a dessert to share and invite a friend!

March 5th - 6:30 PM

Join us for a service of Ashes as we begin the season of Lent, a seven-week journey towards Jesus' death and resurrection.

March 9th

Remember to set your clocks ahead as we spring forward for Daylight Savings Time.

March 9th - 12:00 PM

OWLS (Older Wiser Loving Seniors) don't miss this opportunity to visit to the Samuel Bak Musuem located at UNO on the Aksarben Campus (2289 S.67th Street). Samuel Bak is a Jewish Lithuanian-American painter, writer and Holocaust survivor. His art exhibition is featured at UNO through June 29th. We will begin with a box lunch in the Upper Commons at church before heading over to the Museum. Place your order for a box lunch with Carol McChesney by March 2nd.

First Covenant Church, I hope your church is heathy and growing at the start of this new year! We just wanted to say thank you so much for being a part of our Hope Family!

Year after year you have had willing and generous hearts towards our program and our members. As you reflect, I hope it brings your church much joy as the help brings joy and hope to others! Audrey Solodovnik
