Last Sunday we welcomed new members into our church family. If you haven't had a chance to meet them yet, here is a little bit about them and how they got connected with First Covenant Church.

Jim Carroll

I moved to Omaha in 1982 and have been active in other churches. After worshipping with many churches in early 2024, I came back to First Covenant because of the warm welcome I got, blended worship, and the particularly Bible-based preaching. Anne and I were married in 1968. We have three adopted children, none of whom stayed in Omaha after high school or got married, though we do have a grandson. We play in a friendly marathon bridge group, volunteer time in town, and enjoy theatre. I enjoy backgammon, wordle, productive legislative process, symphonic music and organ, chemistry, theology and distance running.

Karl Jensen

Lived in Omaha area all my life. I have always liked the Covenant faith. Was a member of Bensonvale, Faith Covenant Church. I knew some people at First Covenant when I got there, but everyone made me feel welcome. I like working out, kayaking, walking. I am a graduate of Omaha Bible School.

Mimi & Rich Moore

We started attending First Covenant in June of 2024 after retiring and moving to the Council Bluffs/Omaha area. Mimi is a retired school instructor, administrator and university professor. Rich is a retired ECC pastor of 34 years. Mimi enjoys reading, music and gardening. Rich's hobbies include serving as a public address announcer for high school, university and professional sports (including over 25 national championship tournaments). Both enjoy visiting presidential museums and libraries and spending time with their adult sons, a daughter in law and 5 grandchildren.

Michael, Joy, Melina, Natalie & Aiden Thompson

We began attending First Covenant in June when Mike retired from pastoring. We are a homeschooling family and enjoy taking walks, riding bikes, and playing pickleball. We are celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary this year. Melina is a senior in high school, Natalie is learning to drive, and Aiden just became a teenager. We feel incredibly blessed to be part of this church family and look forward to doing life together.
